

Fundraising Ideas For College Students

- ★ Bowlathon – Students collect sponsors and charge admission fee (sponsors might pledge 5 cents per pin, 50 cents per strike, etc.)
- ★ Dinner Delivery Night—Students purchase homemade dinner to be delivered to their dorm room. Students make dinner and then deliver (spaghetti night, taco night, ethnic foods.)
- ★ Professor/Student Basketball Game.
- ★ Powder Puff Football Game—Use popular campus groups and charge participants and viewers (i.e. cheerleaders vs. pom squad).
- ★ Used book, dress, jewelry, or furniture sale.
- ★ Casino night. Participants buy tokens with which to gamble. Tokens buy raffle tickets for prizes.
- ★ Candy grams, Valentine’s Day candies or flowers, singing grams. Participants order items to be delivered to friends’ dorms.
- ★ Finals survival kits. Parents are offered option of buying a finals kit with snacks, inspirational messages, and fun stuff to be delivered to dorms.
- ★ BBQ dinners or Bonfires. Great for fall as tailgate parties.
- ★ Sports Tournaments (athletes collect pledges for # of touchdowns, baskets, or home runs scored)
- ★ Lost and Found auction (auction off items from school’s lost and found storage)
- ★ Movie parties. Rent a movie to show on a big projector screen and charge admission.
- ★ Kiss a senior goodbye. Participants purchase candy or flowers and messages to graduating seniors.
- ★ Host a benefit concert, recital, or dance.
- ★ Fashion show with students work or local merchants.
- ★ Oscar party with trivia games and prizes.
- ★ Game show event (Wheel of Fortune, Jeopardy, Millionaire)
- ★ Bachelor or date auction. Auction off dates with students (include dinner or movie tickets, etc)
- ★ Ice cream sundae social. Buy ice cream and trimmings, and charge admission.